NEW YORK CITY

Dearest Dolly; - Please kiss Kathleen for me and wish her many, many happy birth-days in the years to come and I hope the recent Sept 20th one was happy - I thought of her and fully intended to write but I seemed to have countless interruptions, - it is really that I am just as good as a little miser any more - but I love you both just the same - think of you every day and it is always the same whether or not I see or hear from you - but I do like to hear - Hope you got my last letter - and especially I hope you're both well - that you had some rest and a nice time during the holidays - I'm well and busy as ever - family all well except for occasional ups and downs - Altho' and her family are in their new home - it's really, lovely - just right - Julian's Sonny - (FVS 2^d) and I spent two days there (my only visit) Julian has bought his fine big house in N. Adams and they're happy about that and simply blissful over their fine library (most of Carolyn W's beautiful first editions) to which they are steadily adding -

Did you see the page about my collection and the notice of Whitman issue of W. of Penn. Library Chronicle (all his collection) in N.Y. Times Book Review Aug 16th? The enclosed is taken from the Times - is much cut - Good Mr Saunders sent me several copies I thought it would amuse you - Keep it, you really want it - otherwise return it (I can't bear to think of its being destroyed!!) Dear love to you both always, - and send along a love - Devotedly, Harriet
